

The bride's lavender rose and lilac freesia bouquet popped against her handmade lace gown from Vera Wang Chicago.

Intermezzo was served in mini ice sculptures.

Heffernan Morgan Designs peppered the room with roses and Swarovski crystals.

MICHELE ROSS &
TOM CLARK

*May 1, 2010
Four Seasons Hotel Chicago*

THE VENUE Tom, an owner of Four Moon Tavern in Roscoe Village, and Michele said "I do" at Saint Andrew before celebrating at the Four Seasons. THE DETAILS Bridal consultant Frank Andonoplas planned the glamorous affair from start to finish, including commissioning the world's fastest Etch A Sketch artist to do portraits of each partygoer on silver takeaway versions of the retro toy. THE PARTY After a Veuve Clicquot "Champagne parade," 150 guests indulged in a five-course, sit-down dinner by the hotel's executive chef Kevin Hickey and danced to the Al Sofia Band. —E.H.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom and Michele Clark.

Heffernan Morgan artfully mixed formal and lounge seating throughout the Grand Ballroom at the Four Seasons. Extra chandeliers and amethyst mood lighting from Frost completed the romantic scene.

The couple's chocolate buttercream cake by Take the Cake.